

Independent and Assisted Living in Woburn, MA

NEW RESIDENT

Joann Cuozzo, Suite 439, lived in Dickens, Texas until high school, when the military transferred her father (and thus, the family) to Tokyo. Upon her return to the U.S., she met and married Anthony, with whom she enjoyed a 64-year union. The pair raised their four children in Medford. Joann earned a degree in community development from UMass Boston, and went on to work at the Boston Garden in events payroll. She also worked for a substance abuse recovery facility. Her favorite pastime is spending time with her family. Joann also enjoys reading, playing word games, bowling, and dancing.

Please join us in extending a warm welcome to Joann.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES AT NEW HORIZONS

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Each winter, Activities Assistant Linda Champa (pictured below, far right) organizes donations of warm weather accessories for neighbors in need. Our resident yarn crafters (left to right) Toula Wouralis, Joy Draper, Jean McElhinney, Ginny Gimilaro, and Florence Fitzsimmons recently whipped up a storm of scarves to place at a local church.

THANK YOU

The generosity and goodwill shown through your donations to the Staff Appreciation Fund brought holiday cheer to New Horizons employees and their families. We extend our heartfelt thanks to you all, and wish residents and their loved ones much happiness now and in the year to come.
