

Independent and Assisted Living in Woburn, MA

NEW RESIDENTS

Ann and Harold Hanewich, Suite 342, join us from their home in Mashpee on Cape Cod. Both were born and raised in Rhode Island, Ann in Providence and Harold in Pawtucket. During their 67-year marriage, they have resided in nine different locations, including Sarasota, Florida. The pair has eight children, who have given them 22 grandchildren as well as two great-grandchildren. Ann worked for Amica Insurance Company until the children came along, at which point she began her favorite role as mother and homemaker. Harold made his career teaching mathematics to high school students, and enjoyed his time out of the classroom as a football coach. Ann and Harold, along with their clan, are all sports enthusiasts.

Although Helen Carter, Suite 242, grew up in Revere, she made her home in Arlington for the past 65 years. In addition to raising six children, she managed a cafeteria at her local high school, and later became an assistant librarian. This seasoned traveler has toured Ireland, Scotland, and England. She has also taken Caribbean and European river cruises and visited every U.S. National Park. In her spare time, Helen enjoys completing crossword and jigsaw puzzles.

Blanche Dellarciprete, Suite 421, is a Medford native who joins us from her condominium in downtown Winchester. Prior to retirement, this mother of four girls held administrative roles at an insurance company and a doctor's office. Blanche counts herself blessed to have traveled all over Europe, and holds Switzerland, Austria, and Italy as her all-time favorite destinations. She especially enjoys playing bridge.
