NEW RESIDENTS

Lucile Cashin, Suite 276, grew up in Putnam, CT, just a few blocks from resident Jeanne Dougherty. The ladies later reunited in Boston, where Lucile worked as a bank teller and secretary, and together attended the Boston College dance where Lucile met her future husband, Jim. She continued her career after marriage, running a child day care while raising her own two children with Jim in Westwood. A spiritual person, Lucile is a Eucharistic Minister and a frequent volunteer.

Celine MacFarland, Suite 378, joins us from her condominium in Tewksbury. Born and raised in Boston's West End, Celine attended St. Joseph's Grammar School before graduating from Cardinal Cushing High School in South Boston. Her family later moved to Everett when an urban renewal project displaced the West End residents. Celine initially made her career with New England Telephone, and retired as a Verizon employee. In her spare time, she enjoys reading autobiographies.

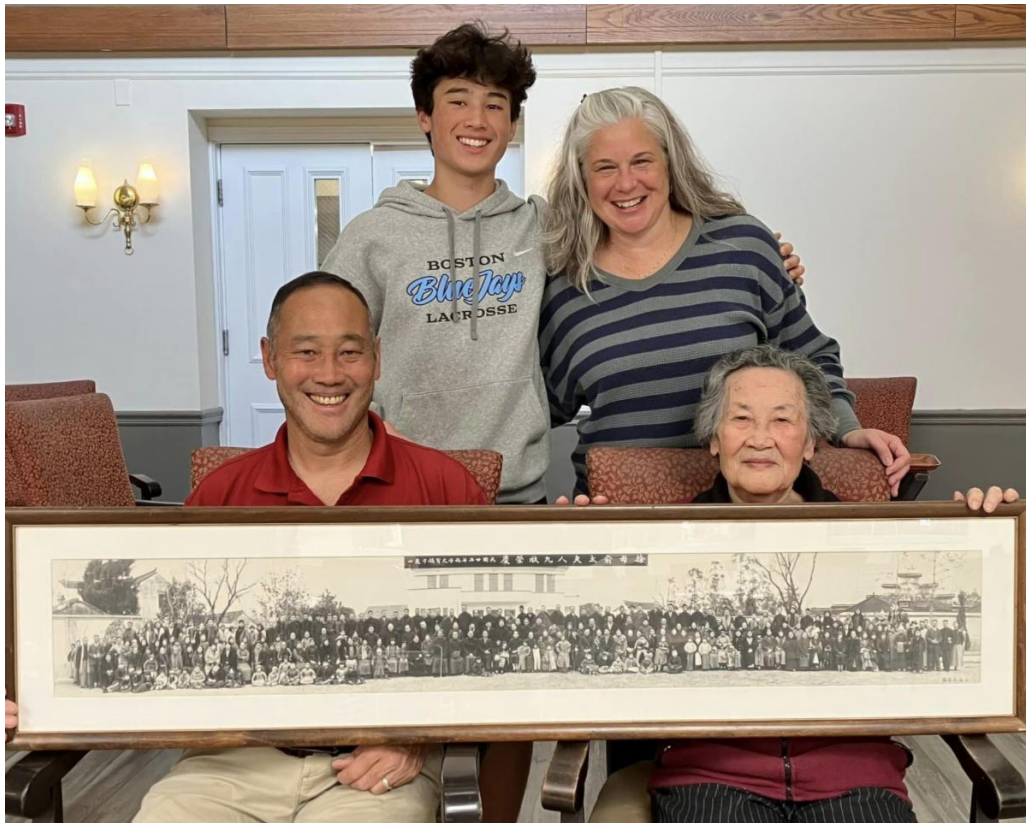

Please join us in wishing a warm welcome to Lucile and Celine.

RESIDENT PHOTO ALBUM

Resident Julia Low recently mesmerized fellow residents with a presentation about her life, recounting the time she was put on a cargo ship at age 14, her intense preparation to become a U.S. citizen, and her experiences up to her life today. She concluded her heartfelt story with “the past is painful, the present is peaceful and joyful, and the future is both predictable and unpredictable.”
