NEW HORIZONS CELEBRATES 28 YEARS: The 28th anniversary gala was an elegant and festive occasion for more than 250 residents, guests, and trustees. Congratulations to all, and special thanks to the food service team for the delicious fare. Ed Hatch and Muriel Penna were honored as 10-year residents. Phil Catanzano celebrated 25 years working at New Horizons. Anna Stoddard and Donna Gearty celebrated their 20th anniversaries at NHC, and Heidi Prezioso celebrated her 10-year employment anniversary.

Pictured (clockwise from top right): Anna Stoddard; Ed Hatch and Executive Director Christine Coakley; NHC food service team; Muriel Penna and Christine; and Heidi Prezioso, all enjoying the festivities.

NEW RESIDENTS: Barbara Slattery, Suite 373 was born and raised in Arlington, and became a Winchester resident in 1966. A former secretary at Bartlett School and a current ballroom dancer, she is the mother of three children. She has traveled extensively to places such as Australia, Poland, Ireland, Italy, Norway, Brazil and more.

Terry Smith, Suite 384 joins us from Ambassador Manor Condos on Arlington Road in Woburn. Terry is the proud mother of five daughters and three sons. She enjoys long walks and, as an avid reader, she can often be found in our library area immersed in her latest book.

Sally Casey, Suite 239 was born in Cambridge and has resided in Somerville, Arlington, and most recently at Quail Run Condos in Woburn. The mother of one son, she has worked at General Motors, Pewter Pot, and Mirak Chevrolet. An active person, she especially enjoys playing cards, listening to music, and dancing.

Joe O'Keefe, Suite 226 was born and raised in Everett. He joins us from his condo in Winchester and is the father of four children. After serving in the U.S. Air Force, Joe started selling homemade pizza from his very own food truck. It was one of the first food trucks to hit the streets. His business flourished around the greater Everett area, and he also secured an exclusive contract on the campus of MIT. Of Joe's varied travels, Italy remains his favorite.

NEW STAFF: We are pleased to welcome Trudy Umstead, who will work at the front desk.

ART CLASS WITH ANNEMARIE: The painting class with Annemarie was a huge success. Residents Ruth Benedikt, Gloria Cushing, Sue Porter, Maureen Copithorne, Virginia Gimilaro, Edna Sandstrom, Ann Restivo, Margaret Franklin, Isabel Bloch, and Eleanor Boormeester turned into artists and painted their own seascapes using acrylic paints.
